

Ecopolitics Conference 2005, 4-6 July, Griffith University, Nathan campus, Brisbane

Time	Venue	Sunday 3 July
4:00pm-7:00pm		Welcome Drinks Griffith University Club

Time	Venue	Monday 4 July
8:30-9:00am	Foyer	Registration & coffee
9:00-10:30am	Lecture theatre	Welcome to Country Welcome to the Conference from the Organisers Opening Plenary - Global Sustainability: The Role of Industry; Governance and Engagement Tricia Caswell, CEO Victorian Forest Industries Association
10:30-11:00am	Foyer	Morning tea
11:00am-12:30pm	Seminar rooms	The Corporate Citizen - friend or foe of sustainable development? Michael Howes Why Incentives Make Business More Sustainable Phillip Kimmet	Slow Learning and Courageous Conversation – How ecological adult learning might support personal, professional and social transformation Sally MacKinnon Making a difference: Strategies for mobilising community action Sam La Rocca	Meanings of 'Values' in a Wet Tropics World Heritage Context: Social Representations and Rhetoric Denise Dillon, David Cottrell & Joseph Reser The Green - Brown Dichotomy: Re-examining the Preservation - Extraction Debate in Natural Resource Politics Ann Brower		Addressing Fragmented and Unsustainable Environmental Governance in South Africa: Integrated Pollution Prevention and Control as a Framework for Integration Reforms Louis J. Kotze Green NGOs and Authoritarian Regimes: The Perils of Environmental Activism in Thaksin's Thailand Adam Simpson

Time	Venue	Monday 4 July
12:30-2:00pm		Lunch Book Launch Politics and the Environment: Risk and the Role of Government and Industry – Michael Howes
2:00-3:30pm	Seminar rooms	Strategic Relationships Between Transnational Corporations and Local Communities Peter Hoppe, Roy Rickson & David Burch. Ganapati Visarjan: The Idol Immersion - A Golden Way Out Ar. Muktar Latkar	Workshop Activist Mobilisation and Active Citizen Participation Sam La Rocca	Rebuilding the Ship: A New Model of Democracy in Emergence Karey Harrison & Drew Hutton Towards a New Constitutionalism: Implications of the call for Global Responsibility Richard Mochelle		Democracy and Environmental Rulemaking: The Impact of Web-based Technology and Campaigns David Schlosberg + others E-government: A new platform for environmental information systems Dr Tan Yigitcanlar
3:30-4:00pm	Foyer	Afternoon tea
4:00-5:30pm	Seminar rooms	Workshop The National Pollution Inventory Peter Thorning	Prospects for participation in natural resource management decision-making Geoff Cockfield From governance rhetoric to practical reality: Making community-based natural resource management decision-making work Lionel Pero	Encountering Waste/Recycling History: Environmental Injury, Justice and the Topographies of Political Engagement Donna Houston Integrating Exterior and Interior Knowledge in Sustainable Development Policy Chris Riedy		The Sallience of Environmental Issues in the 2004 Australian Federal Election Paul Norton 'The Greens' Electoral Fortunes in Queensland: 2004 and Beyond Paul Williams The Greens in South Australia: The Struggle against Opportunism Stephen Darley
6pm		Phil Tighe Memorial Lecture - Governance and Metagovernance in NSW Water Reform Stephen Bell, University of Queensland

Time	Venue	Tuesday 5 July
8:30-9:00am	Foyer	Registration & coffee
9:00-10:30am	Lecture theatre	Panel: “Doing or Debating” – Civil Disobedience v Deliberative Governance John Dryzek, Australian National University Jacqui Katona, Lumbu Indigenous Corporation Kerry Nettle, Australian Greens Senator for NSW David Schlosberg, Northern Arizona University Cam Walker, Friends of the Earth
10:30-11:00am	Foyer	Morning tea
11:00am-12:30pm	Seminar rooms	Freeform: Doing or Debating Facilitated discussion to follow the morning's panel. Responses, reactions, reflections.	Australia's Environmental Regulation of Genetically Modified Crops: Science and Precaution Fern Wickson	Transformations and continuities: CITES and the Regulation of wildlife trade in Laos Sarinda Singh	Negotiating Away the Environment Ronlyn Duncan Water Myths and Water Reforms Kirsten Henderson
12:30-2:00pm		Lunch Book Launch Environmental Movements in Majority and Minority Worlds: A Global Perspective – Tim Doyle
2:00-3:30pm	Seminar rooms	Real Estate Development Industry Structure: Its shape and shapers Eddo Coiacetto Is the Commodification of Land and Housing	Workshop What way forward for climate refugees? Stephanie Long & Cam Walker	Workshop Developing Preferable Eco-political alternatives Ian McGregor, Daniel Franks, Michael Howes, & Giorel Curran	Urban Containment and sustainability in South East Queensland Dr Tan Yigitcanlar, Brendan Gleeson, Neil Sipe & Jago Dodson Urban Energetical Signature: a new methodological approach for indicator

Time	Venue	Tuesday 5 July
		Appropriate for Sustainable Residential Communities? Paul Donehue				Benoit Lefevre
3:30-4:00pm	Foyer	Afternoon tea
4:00-5:30pm	Seminar rooms	The Eco-Politics of Global Warming Ian McGregor Rethinking the Role of Regulation in the Pursuit of Sustainability Paul Martin	Notions of Ecological Citizenship in Climate Justice Campaigns Cassandra Star Confronting Climate Change: A Review of Perspectives on Environmental NGO Campaigns Nina Lansbury Hall	Workshop Cape York – Australia's Second Kakadu Louise Matthieson	The Environment and Transition in Romania and Hungary Tom O'Brien Environmental Grassroots Initiatives in Israel: The Buds of New Politics, or the Remnants of traditional Politics? Marganit Ofir-Gutler	Environmental Movies – Showing and Discussion Tasmania's forests, A Global Treasure, A National Responsibility Roughcut: Gunns20 and Tasmanian forests updates Heidi Douglas
6pm		Journal Launch Griffith Journal of the Environment - Griffith University Club
7pm		Conference dinner – Griffith University Club

Time	Venue	Wednesday 6 July
8:30-9:00am	Foyer	Registration & coffee
9:00-10:30am	Lecture theatre	Forum: Suing for Silence GUNNS20 Heidi Douglas, Independent Filmmaker Tim Doyle, University of Adelaide Gary Johns, Institute of Public Affairs Danny Kennedy, Greenpeace Australia Pacific Alec Marr, The Wilderness Society
10:30-11:00am	Foyer	Morning tea
11:00am-12:30pm	Seminar rooms	Freeform: Suing for Silence Facilitated discussion to follow the morning's panel. Responses, reactions, reflections.	Green Biopolitics and the Administration of 'Reformed' Life Richard Hindmarsh Reorienting the Ecocentric Individual Ben Ridder	Green Underground I: The Theory of Environmental Politics under Authoritarian Regimes Tim Doyle Pleading with the Emporer: Pax Americana and the Transformation of Environmental Governance Daniel Franks & John Mackenzie	Forest Stories – Media Reporting of Forest Policy, 1985-2004 Robyn Hollander Patterns in media coverage of environmental activism - an historical perspective Jane Macdonald
12:30-2:00pm		Lunch Ecopolitics Association of Australasia AGM
2:00-3:30pm	Seminar rooms	Workshop Clean, green and nuclear? Jim Green	Riding the waves of environmental activism: Participation and uneasy alliances in Western Australia Jenny Pickerill	People power, politics and poultry: a strategic analysis of network politics in the campaign for non-genetically engineered poultry feed	Nature-based tourism and indigenous issues: contending philosophical perspectives Robert A. Poirier Measuring Policy Effectiveness: First

Time	Venue	Wednesday 6 July
				James Whelan Technologies of Dissent Giorel Curran	Nations' Participation in Environmental Assessment in British Columbia, Canada Douglas Baker & Paul Donegue
3:30-4:00pm	Foyer	Afternoon tea
4:00-5:30pm	Seminar rooms	Discussion Forum Building bridges between Academia and Activism Facilitated discussion to follow the conference events. Responses, reactions, reflections.
5.30-6.30pm		Conference Closing and Reflections The Conference Organisers
6.30pm		Join us for Closing Drinks – The Griffith University Club				